Terms and Conditions of Affiliate Membership

Affiliate Membership is offered to suppliers of goods or services who wish to offer an exclusive benefit to members of Hosted Accommodation Australia Ltd. The benefit should be tailored to small business and require realistic quantity purchases to qualify for the discount offered. Contact the HAA Office if clarification is required.

An affiliate member must offer a meaningful benefit to HAA members of either a minimum discount of 10%, or a partnership agreement that enables HAA to provide a benefit to its members.

Affiliate membership is for a period of twelve months. An invitation to renew membership will be issued by HAA.

Affiliate members display details for direct contact including website address and telephone number. On approval of membership options will be provided to the Affiliate Member for a reciprocal link to the HAA website.

The Affiliate Member is required to confirm the membership status of businesses that apply for the exclusive discount they offer to HAA members.

Locums who apply for Affiliate Membership are required to provide details of their experience and credentials for running an accommodation business upon request to a member of HAA who enquires about their services.

HAA undertakes to promote the Affiliate Member to its full and *associate members by way of an introductory newsletter and subsequent newsletters dedicated to member benefits.

HAA undertakes to promote the Affiliate Member in the HAA Buyers Guide which lists all discounts and savings available to HAA members in a secure web page.

HAA reserves the right to terminate an agreement with a Partner Supplier at any time after due notice of the intent to do so.

The fee for Affiliate Membership is $165 inc GST.

An associate member is a developing accommodation business not yet open to trade.*
